In The Beginning

For most students, orientation meant one thing: the last few days of summer were fading away and, alas, a new school year was just around the corner.

As the hustle, bustle, and clamor of the students filled the auditorium, the past summer and future high school expectations were the basic topics of conversation. The clatter of the group turned to whispers and attention was centered upon a member of the Spalding faculty. The greeting was a quick "hello" and "welcome back," followed by an unending list of absurd rules. Another Spalding official continued with a speech, list ing the goals and priorities that the students should work towards at AOL/SI. Then I.D. cards, locker assignments, and handbooks were distributed.

During freshman orientation, the students ran around with their Big Brothers and Big Sisters frantically looking for their classrooms yet trying to make it to the "pit" for mass. The freshmen realized this state of confusion would remain with them during the first few days of school.

By the conclusion of orientation week, most students were ready to accept the challenge of the new school year and say goodbye to summer freedom.

A Day of Tradition and Excitement

The junior class will remember September 10 as a day of excitement — a day they had been anticipating for some time. It was their Ring Day — the traditional event that marks juniors as upperclassmen.

The day began with mass, celebrated by Father Beebe at Sacred Heart. The theme of the mass was "We are one in Christ" and in his homily, Father Beebe explained that the class ring is a symbol of class unity and memories of high school. After the blessing of the rings, Sister Marcia presented them to the students.

Following the special liturgy the junior class went to "Stage 2 Lunch, music and dancing were enjoyed by all juniors. According to the junior class moderator, Mrs. Maurice, "the day was of great significance and turned out to be a success due to the hard work of the Student Senate."

Off Broadway

case, the seniors' theme is expressed dramatically

Homecoming '86 was held September 14-20. The general theme, "Off Broadway" prevailed throughout the week. It would become an event that many would treasure as a high school memory.

One aspect of Homecoming was the "hall decs." On Sunday, members of each class decorated their respective hall according to the theme of their skit. The judging results were: 1st — Seniors, 2nd — Juniors, 3rd — Sophomores, 4th — Freshmen.

During Homecoming week, fashions at AOL/SI changed drastically. Each day a different style was established and students gladly dressed accordingly to escape the dreaded uniform. On Monday, 50's day, poodle skirts, leather jackets, and t-shirts were popular. On Tuesday, Oklahoma day, flannel shirts, jeans, cowboy boots and hats were worn by many. On Wednesday, Inside-out day, nearly everyone participated by wearing 'whatever' on the wrong side. On Thursday, Occupation day, doctors, housewives, and businessmen were visible in the school halls. Finally, on Friday, Purple, Gold, & White day, the students showed their Irish spirit by wearing the school colors.

Spirit Galore

Skits were an enjoyable part of Homecoming whether you were a spectator or a participant.

On Tuesday, families and friends were invited and on Wednesday the students attended Loyalty, sportsmanship, and great spirit were shown in the three skits. The sophomore skit was based on West Side Story. The juniors performed a version of Annie. Finally, the seniors' was a take-off of Grease. The judging results were as follows. 1st — Seniors, 2nd — Juniors, 3rd — Sophomores.

Following skits on Wednesday, students went outside to the bon fire. Although the rain-soaked wood took awhile to start, the fire was soon ablaze. The queen and her court were announced.

On Friday afternoon, a pep rally was held for the whole school. It was a time for everyone to express their school spirit through cheers. Coach McMahon encouraged the students to support the team at the game.

On Friday evening prior to the game many students, mostly in trucks, met in the school parking lot to decorate their vehicles. Then the caravan paraded to Richwoods' stadium to see the long awaited Homecoming game against Woodruff.

Friday evening, the Irish met the Warriors. Pouring rain caused many delays. Eventually, at half time, it was decided that the remaining half would be played Saturday afternoon. The Irish lost 32-20.

The Grand Finale

The evening of Saturday September 20, at 9pm, the Ramada Inn became the site of the Homecoming dance. Couples arrived after dining at restaurants such as Jumer's, Vona chen's, Old Place, and the River Station. They danced to the music of Booe and the Scanners. Mau-reen Koch reigned as queen over the dance. The evening was a per fect conclusion to a very memora ble Homecoming week

A Fun Time For All

On October 17, students, faculty, and eighth graders from several grade schools attended the annual "Carnival On The Mall." The varied selection of delicious food included gondolas, pork chops, bratwursts, cotton candy, taffy apples, baked goods, popcorn, and soda. Game booths consisted of many from past years plus some new ones. The dunk tank, manned by the E.T.C., seemed to be the most popular. Music continuously played throughout the carnival; students acted as D.J. Once again many homerooms took part in the tug-of-war, with senior homeroom #18 being the winner. The day concluded with an Irish spirit-filled pep rally. The varsity football co-captains stated that "we're gonna break Richwoods' winning streak of thirty games." That evening the Irish won, breaking the Knights' winning streak.

“Foiled Again!”

The Educational Theatre Company chose Caught In The Villain's Web as this year's fall production.

It was a play characterized by heavy use of suspense, sensational episodes, romantic sentiment and a conventional happy ending. In this melodrama by Herbert E.

Swayne, Felicity, the persecuted heroine, was constantly escaping the evils of the ruthless villain Cyril Bothinqwell. Due to the hard work of the cast, producer/director Kathy Svoboda, and the stage crew, the play was a huge success. It, like so many of the past plays at AOL/SL, proved to be a smash hit.

Cyril Bothinqwell (Mike Nee), the sinister villain, is constantly up to no good.

Travels in Russia

From July 18 to August 9, 1986, Erik Heinzen, Cyndi Leman, and Sr. Barbara joined 22 other students and two teachers from Illinois in learning first hand about the USSR.

They traveled over 8,000 miles within six of the 15 Soviet Republics: Moscow, Leningrad, Suzdal, Rostov-on-Don in Russia; Kharkov in the Ukraine; Baku in Azerbaijan; Dushanbe in Tajikistan; Alma Ata in Kazakhstan; and Tashkent in Uzbekistan. The trip was a program called "Initiative for Understanding: American-Soviet Youth Exchange." The group experienced the culture and peoples of the USSR.

Reflection, Meditation, Prayer

Solitude, reflection, meditation, and prayer united students closer to their friends, faith, and God. Short lectures, films, skits, discussions, and mass filled the day and made it enjoyable for all participants. Father Terry Diefenbach, retreat master, wanted students to "stop and think, feel, laugh, and cry." He made the retreat day special and unique for each class. Retreats were held on January 21 (freshmen), January 22 (sophomores), February 4 (juniors), and February 5 (seniors). Many students remarked that the hugging was the best part of the retreat.

Emotions run high as Cindy Schmitt and Fr. Terry share a hug during the junior retreat. One of the major parts of the retreat was a hug, where students hugged members from their class.

Students at the senior retreat gathered in groups of six or seven to discuss a moral decision in a situation described by Fr. Terry.

Father Terry asks the freshmen to answer questions dealing with retreat and networking at the retreat.

A Big Night For The Guys

February 28, 1987 was a big night for the guys. Instead of them treating the girls like queens, the girls treated the guys like kings. The girls paid for everything. They bought the guys a fancy dinner and swept them off to the dance floor. The couples danced to the beat of "The Heat" in the "lower ballroom" of AOL/SI, also known as the school cafe teria

The cafeteria was transformed into a night stop for couples with decorations of pink, red, and white. The guys knew they were important when they saw their names and escorts' names on big pink hearts on the walls. The night was topped off with the crowning of Dan Schaub as king

Seniors Bryan Tilly and Monica Mattingly, and freshman Mark Maroon take time out from dancing to talk about the night's happenings.

ish Greet Ivorians

When the Ivorians first arrived on Wednesday morning we were all introduced. It was a slow start because we weren't sure how much English they knew and they weren't sure how much French we knew, but it soon disappeared.

Marie-Victoire Ouffoue was the student that stayed with me and my family and she and I shared my room. Our two most common phrases were "Qu'est-ce qu'on dit" and "Est-ce que tu ..." which translate to "How do you say" and "Do you ...". We talked about her friends at home and the ones she had made in the United States. We looked at the pictures of some of my friends and she quizzed me with some French flash cards I had.

With my parents, we talked about the climate differences. In Côte d'Ivoire the temperature is never above 30.5°C (87°F) or below 23.9°C (77°F) so they were all a bit cold here. We also discussed their education system. When Sister Barbara asked Vicki how much the tuition was she couldn't understand "tuition" because schools in Ivory Coast are free. Everyone does well because if they don't there is someone waiting to take their place. The school days there are from 7 am to 12 noon and then 3 pm to 6 pm. On Thursday and Saturday they only go 'til noon.

She and I also discussed the price of various things. In Ivory Coast a pair of Levi's cost $80 but cassette tapes only cost $3. Most teens in Ivory Coast love American music. The more common favorites are Phil Collins, Prince, Lionel Richie, Paul Simon (especially since the release of his album Graceland), Madonna and Cyndi Lauper.

The main issue that discouraged and disappointed them was the lack of knowledge American students had about other countries. They told us some students were surprised that Ivorians lived in houses, wore more than a loincloth, had cars and television sets, or had skyscrapers in Abidjan — the capitol of Ivory Coast.

Vicki helped me get ready for the Prom, too. And by Sunday, I was very sorry to see them leave. This had been much more than a learning experience — it had become a bond of friendship. Now I have a new sister and five other dear friends. Hopefully in the near future I'll get to see them again. Until then, we'll keep writing and learning more about each other and our countries and whenever I heard "You Can Call Me Al" on the radio I'll think of the Ivory Coast students who spent five days in Peoria during the spring of my junior year.

Junior Ann Ihnken and sophomore Richard Ihnken, her brother, bring up the gifts during the offertory. The Founders' Day Mass involved many people associated with Academy, helping in many ways.

On May 23 and May 24, about fifty juniors rented a charter bus and went to Great America. They stayed at the Holiday Inn in Gurnee. The trip cost each student $50 plus meals and souvenirs. The trip was organized by Maria Aranas and it was a great success.

Travels In Italy

Over Easter break, 16 people traveled to Italy for a one week vacation. The group rode gondolas in Venice, climbed the Leaning Tower of Pisa, admired the art of daVinci, Michelangelo, and Raphael in Florence, awed by the wonders of St. Peter's and the Sistine Chapel in Rome, and shopped and ate pasta everywhere. The cost was approximately $1,200

A "Close Up" Look At Washington, D.C.

Seven juniors and two seniors visited Washington, D.C. from April 26 to May 2 with a program called Close Up. The trip was a unique fun-filled, learning experience that introduced students to senators, representatives, journalists, and lobbyists in an attempt to familiarize high schoolers with their national government.

Fourth and Four

Although the 1986 football record was not as successful as previous seasons, there were some very positive aspects. Most of the players agreed that they grew as a team throughout the season. With only four returning starters from last year, Coach McMahon said it was lack of experience that made a big difference, but he also expressed that the team "played as hard as it could and never gave up." The team's attitude was exemplified in breaking the Richwood' 30 game winning streak, beating them in a thrilling seven to two victory. "It was great because we hadn't beaten Richwoods since freshman year," said one senior player about the game. Spalding's overall record was three and six and the conference record was three and four. Senior Tim Eason thought "we could do better than we did, but our team had tons of unity and teamwork

The 1986 football awards were voted on by the team. The captains for this season were seniors Bryan Tilly and George Driggs. Center, Bryan Tilly, was also voted Best Offensive Receiver, and senior Troy Cambell was named Best Defensive Lineman. Led by Coach Hitzeroth and Coach Burk, the freshman football team ended its season with a 9-1 record. The only game lost was to the Central Lions by the narrow margin of 4 points. They "played well as a team," knowing that a good team does not exist of a few outstanding players, but through the cooperation of everyone

Playing competitively, the sophomore team achieved a 4-4 record. Coach Kelly commented that the sophomores were "little in size, but big in heart." The team's enthusiasm made up for their lack in size. Coaches Kelly and Doyle were pleased with their players' efforts

Corner Shot

The Irish Soccer team had an 11-7 season and many high and low points. One of the high points was the Moline game when the Irish defeated them 4-3. A lot of the bad points in the season were caused from injuries. The Irish also had a new coach this year, Steve De Cremer. Although it was his first year, he was very sound on discipline and team unity. Many of the team players say he worked very well with what he had.

Running Towards Success

This year marked the first full season with a girls' cross-country team (requiring five runners) and the first girls' dual meet victory in the school's history. This came against Manual. With only three experienced runners, the team did well. It finished fifth in a strong girls' conference and twelfth at the much acclaimed Spalding Invitational, one of the largest high school cross-country races in the country.

A dual meet win over Woodruff was a high point in the boys' season. With the set up of one top runner and middle runners farther back, the team placed eighth in conference but did send senior Andy Noreuil onto sectionals.

First year coach Scott Schifelling summed it up by saying, the two teams "should have a good nucleus back for next season as we only had two seniors, and four freshmen made big contributions this year." Most valuable runners were Andy

Noreuil and Karen Millar. Tim Waters and Erin Smith received most improved runner awards. Tom Thomas and Ingrid Dowell were most dedicated.

Gym Time

It's after school. Your ride is coming at 2:45 or you have practice at 3:00. What do you do to waste time? Many people in this situation go to the gym. The cheerleaders are stretching before they practice. Pom-pom girls use precious time on the gym floor before volleyball or basketball players take over. The weight room is busy and there are even a few people trying to get some homework done. In addition to the athletes, there are always people just standing around. Some are just passing through. Others, just talk to friends until coaches come and kick them out. So you have some time to waste? Why not go to the gym.

Drive, Chip, Putt

This year's golf team finished with a 4-7 dual match record, and placed 6th at the Mid-State 10 conference tournament, which was held at Northmoor Golf course. The team was led by junior Chuck Smith who had a 9 hole average of 41, and junior Brad Fulton, who had an average of 44. Todd Cailan and Matt Sandvos were the only seniors that played varsity this year, so next year the team should do better with more experienced players.

The best tournament finish for the team was at the Sterling Invitational, where the Irish finished 8th, with Brad Fulton qualifying for the sectionals by shooting an 83. Fulton, however, did not make it to state.

At the end of the year, awards for lowest average and most birdies went to Chuck Smith, while Brad Fulton and sophomore Troy Foster tied for most improved.

Fourteen Serving Two

The win-loss record did not illustrate the talent this team possessed according to coach Cindy Clark. With the loss of five seniors, a less successful season can be expected, but no one can predict injuries. Ellen Eason, Michele Maroon, and Sandy Swanson all suffered from injuries this year. Do not draw the conclusion that the season was a total loss. As senior Tami Moore said, "When we began to play like a team, we began to win."

The team was led by senior Sandy Swanson and junior Monica Cundiff who were selected as first and second place conference, respectively. Junior Amy Snider received the award for Most Improved Player. Monica Cundiff was Best Offensive Player while Sandy Swanson was chosen both Best Defensive and Most Valuable Player.

Starters: On Your Marks

This year's twenty-three member team broke even, posting a 6-6 record (2-5 in the conference). This record might cover up some of the season's success. Pattie Nauman, a senior, was Most Valuable Swimmer, setting the school records in the back stroke and individual medley. Kris Penn, a junior, was conference champion in diving and qualified for state. Coach Tom Pilat mentioned these individual successes and the team's size as highpoints. Captained by seniors Pattie Nauman, Julie Newby, and Julie Morris, both the varsity and fresh-soph teams placed fifth in conference. Sophomore Jenny Kelly was Most Improved Swimmer.

Continuity Offense

The 1986-87 fighting Irish Basketball team compiled an overall record of 4-20.

Despite its losing record, this year's team had a good attitude and never gave up. Coach Kelly felt the players worked very hard all year.

Senior Charlie Gavin thought the team played well despite some difficulties. "The team had many injuries and sickness so it was hard to concentrate just five or six people playing together."

The season was highlighted by beating arch-rival, Bergan, twice. The Irish also pulled off a hard fought victory over sectional qualifier Metamora. Scott Schaumburg was the leading scorer and also the leading rebounder.

Scott received special mention in all-conference while Chris Green received honorable mention in all-conference.

Out: Purple Ball

The 1986-87 sophomore boys basketball team saw an overall record of 3-17 and a conference record of 2-12. They achieved their high point of the season when they beat Bergen. Their low point of the season was when they lost 6 games by 10 points or less. Leading scorers for the Irish were Greg Heller and Chris Williams. Coach Schifeling said, "it was a frustrating season from the win-loss stand point, but the effort of the players was outstanding and each showed some improvement as the season went on.

The 1986-87 freshmen boys basketball team had an overall record of (A) 9-6 (B) 9-6 and a conference record of (A) 7-5, (B) 6-5. One high point of the season was winning against Manual at Manual. The low point of the season came when they lost 3 games in a row. Coach Doyle stated, "the players always hustled and worked very hard together

Steal and Shoot

The Irish had a very young team this year and still had an over 500 season. They had only two seniors on the team one of which was Karl Smith, who led the team in steals with an impressive 76 total. A younger star on the team was MVP Monica Cundiff, best offensive player and unanimous 1st team all conference. A high point in the season was the victory over Richwoods 45 to 39, a first for the Lady Irish. The team's final record was 14 and 13. Over all, the team hopes for great things in the future.

The 1986-87 Freshman Sophomore Girls Basketball team finished the season with a respectable 9-9 record. The Lady Irish were led in scoring and rebounding by sophomores Sharon Willi and Ellen Eason, who finished one-two in both categories.

The team's victories include two wins over Bergen and a one point decision over Woodruff to secure a .500 finish for the year.

Takedown, Two Points

The 1986-87 Varsity Wrestling team, a mixture of hard work, prestige, and experience, had an overall impressive record of 19 wins, 3 losses, and 1 tie. This team shall go down in the record books as one of the best in Spalding history, as they set three school records and tied another. These records were: team takedowns (465), team pins (163), and team match points (1,200). They tied the record of sending six sectional qualifiers set by the 1985 and 1986 teams. The six sectional qualifiers were seniors, George Driggs, Brad Pascual, Troy Campbell, Juniors, Andy Welsh and Chuck Anthony, and sophomore Tom Grow.

The team placed 2nd in the Mid-State Ten Tournament behind powerhouse Pekin Dragons. They won the Eureka Invitational and the Delavan Invitational and also placed second at the Illini Bluffs Invitational. With strong leadership from the six starting seniors, Brad Pascual, Matt Paluska, Mike Richardson, Jon Kendall, Troy Campbell, and George Driggs, the wrestling team posted a 5-0-1 record in the city which led the team to a 3rd straight City Championship.

Many firsts in the individual records were made. George Driggs and Brad Pascual became the first 3-time sectional qualifiers. The two also tied for the career win record with George collecting 34 wins and Brad collecting 30 making a total of 94 career wins in their years as varsity wrestlers. Troy Campbell broke the season pin record with 24 pins. Tom Grow broke the escape record with 44.

Individual honors voted on by the team were given to George Driggs (most valuable wrestler), Tom Grow (most improved), and Brad Pascual (most dedicated).

Wrestling coaches are Kevin Burk and Gordon Hitzeroth.

Junior Chuck Anthony (Sectional qualifier) finished his career with a record of 34 wins and 30 losses, a total of 64 career wins.

Girls track team members get last minute tips from Coach Maloney

The 1987 girls track team had a not so pleasing season. The two mile relay consisting of Ingrid Dowell, Karen Millar, Colleen Moore, and Mary Fortune, took 5th in Sectionals. The 400 relay consisting of Lisa Bolton, Angela Bolton, Krista Beckman, and Regina Clay, broke the school record at the Washington relays

The depth of the track team helped to win more meets, so did the strong freshmen group. Due to the absence of a 'star' individual, the team worked well together as a unit with Coaches Cindy Clark and Jerry Maloney.

The Spalding softball team finished the year with a 23-7 season Co-Champions in the Mid-State ten Conference, the Irish shared top honors with Central as both teams ended with 15-2 conference records.

Sophomore pitcher Jenny Kelly ended up with a 13-3 record, while freshman Amy Strong wound up 10-4. Strong defense and timely hitting by the team as a whole contributed to the very successful season.

With 12 of 14 members of squad returning next year, the future looks bright for Irish softball.

Double Play

The 1987 Varsity boys baseball team had an overall record of 15-16 and a conference record of 9-8. The highlight of the season came when they beat every team in conference, except Springfield Lanphier. The low point of the year occurred when they lost those games to Woodruff, East Moline and Crestone.

Outstanding players for the Irish were Scott Schaumburg and Jim Kelly, who were leading hitters. Adam Abraham and Charlie Gavin were the leading pitchers.

Coach Schifeling said, "We had an up and down season where we could never get good hitting, pitching, and defense together for an extended period of time."

This year's Student Senate's major accomplishments were re-writing the constitution, coordinating the annual basket drive, and organizing most of AOL/SI's dances. The dances included Back to-School, Homecoming, Vice-Versa, Prom, and jams after games. They were also involved in the National Forum, Petition Drive to Educate on Nuclear Threat, and

SUMMA and MSJ Record Events

Putting together a publication, whether monthly or yearly, is hard work. There are pictures to be taken, layouts to be designed, and copy to be written. Much dedication and many hours are required. The staffs did not spend all their time working however. MSJ held an annual dinner at Cheddars, and SUMMA had many pizza parties. Editors for the year were seniors Tiffany Orr, MSJ editor, and Troy Hattermann, SUMMA editor. Newspaper advisor was Mrs. Terry Finan, and yearbook advisor was Mrs. Mary Osborne.

Hockey and Soccer Teams Show Their Stuff

Although the first year of girls' soccer was not too successful, it was very enjoyable. They played teams from Collinsville, Rockford, and Peoria rival, Bergen. Their coach, Bob Willi, was very dedicated and had faith in them the whole season. Practice started in the middle of March and continued every day until the end of May.

Both hockey teams, led by coach Mark Olsen, had very successful seasons. The junior varsity team won the league championship. Despite having center Alex Kilgo and goalie Brian Flaherty out with injuries for half of the season, the varsity team placed second in their division. They practiced late on weeknights, starting around 8:45 at Owens Center.

Looking up at the Virgin Mary, we comes visitors on the Acadia Campus as she stands at the south end of the road.

Ads. They bring us all kinds of information. They promote our businesses, keep us informed on the latest and hottest sales, urge us to help others, encourage us to purchase products and policies, entertain us with humor and the ridiculous. They are part of our community, our parents, our alumni, our friends. They can be almost any form: a flier or leaflet, an insert in the Sunday paper, a spot on a radio, a hot air balloon, a bill board, a piece of junk mail, or most commonly, a commercial. Without them we would miss out on many of life's opportunities.

A view of the Acadia Campus as seen from downtown Portland. This angle of the school is reproduced on many of the school's documents, including the stationary and diplomas.

A front view of the Spalding building as it now stands.
 The building was built in 1846 and is known as a fine example of early 19th-century architecture. The institute later merged with the Academy of our Lady of the Sacred Heart in 1878.

... and the winner is ...

Sign-Off

After the Finland's Day Mass, seniors Joe George and Brian Couri lead the procession out of the gym. Joe and Brian were chosen to be servers because of their many relations who attended and are attending Spaulding.

Seniors Pat Kenny, Andy Moreuil, Matt Vignali, freshmen Jason Ribando, and junior Ingrid Dowell ready themselves to answer questions at a scholastic meet. The scholastic team had a superb year, earning many trophies. Now this year was a buzzer system from Parents' Club.

Senior Michele Staats shows a smile of relief after typing in the last line of her computer program. Students were required to write and type a one-page program which used the many commands which they had learned during the whole year.

Sen. Jim Kelly keeps his eye on the big white ball during a game at the Boone field. The varsity baseball team came together under the leadership of coach Scott Scudfeling.

A group of seniors pose outside the charter bus they rented with Bishop Spalding who was taken on a ride on prom night. After the dance, the couples rode to Chicago for breakfast and a walk down Lake Michigan.

The bust of Bishop Spalding watches the student body as they leave the gym after Founder's Day Mass. Bishop Spalding founded the Spalding Institute for boys in 1898
